

DISCLAIMER

Bikedin and the company are not responsible in cases of force majeure and in case of theft and/or damage, even by third parties. Consequently, the customer or employee cannot claim any compensation either from the company or from Bikedin, even in case of damage or theft of accessories belonging to the bike. Those who park their bikes in the area provided must ensure that their bikes are secured with a chain lock, so that they are protected from theft.